At auction by B. N. H. H. May 20, 1872.

Best for Sale—Lucas & Harber.

Auctioneer at the Bush House to-day.

The Erie and West Western repair shop at Randolph is to be abandoned.

This old corner of Buffalo are passing away.

The last double road of well-known owners are Robert G. Bachman and Harry B. Ransom.

COMMISSION—In our statement of Reuben's capacity on Saturday we gave D. L. & Co. of Millersdam, as 2,000 bbls.

The correct figures are 1,000.

O. S. WILSON is to sever his connection with the road on the first day of June next.

Mr. W. has been connected with the road as cashier and agent for the last twenty years.

The renowned musician, Franz Abt, is to be honored with a grand concert at the Buffalo German S. S. Concord.

In fact, on Wednesday evening next the grand choruses are to be sung under the direction of Mr. Abt himself.

THESE MONTH—There will be a social party at Duff's Hall tonight.

This day is observed by all Germans as a holiday. A pleasant time and a good dance will reward all who attend.

The music will be furnished by Henry Keller's orchestra. Tickets, 50 cents.

It is reported that Major Mills has recently left his residence in Franklin.

Mr. Mills is not the landlord of the L. X. Hotel, as it is reported, but is stopping there.

Major Mills has been in feeble health for some time, and within the last few days has seemed to decline rapidly.

The worst fears are not unfounded.

CHARLES WILKINS FORGOT—A youth of twenty-one summers, named Victorio Snyder from Rochester, will have a hearing before Justice Strouse, this morning at 10 o'clock, on the serious charge of forging a check to the amount of twenty dollars on the Citizens' Bank.

The check was made by the firm of Merrill & Co. to the order of W. L. Ryer, and the young man is charged with endorsing Ryer's name.

SOME burglars visited the house of Mr. Sherman in Erie last Friday morning, while the inmates were asleep.

They entered through an unfastened window in the rear. The wife happened to wake up and the husband to have a revolver handy.

The burglars took to their heels when they saw the situation, and Mr. Sherman gave them a parting shot as they vanished through the door, which unfortunately did not take effect.

OPENING OF PERRY STREET—During the past week South Perry street has been graded for a considerable distance between the bridge and the top of the hill.

Work will be commenced on this side of the bridge immediately, and the street graded at the railroad crossing, which will be the work of only a few days.

The improvements will greatly add to the value of property in the vicinity, and enable teams to cross the Perry street bridge without going round by the way of Monroe or Washington streets.

NEW OIL WELLS—A new well was struck, last Saturday night, on the Nelson farm, about five miles from the city, on the Spring Creek road.

The pressure of gas is so strong that it now runs the engine, and as it issues from the hole makes a roaring noise which can be heard to a great distance.

This is an entirely new territory, and speaks well for a prolific oil field some where in that vicinity.

Meers Wm. F. Newton, J. B. Watson and John S. Tracy, are the owners of the well and A. H. Nelson the land interest.

ESCAPE OF TWO PRISONERS FROM THE LOCK UP—About half past eleven o'clock last night two prisoners escaped from the lock up in the following manner.

The door is fastened with a key and padlock. The key is fastened by a bolt passing through the door to the wall.

On the end of the bolt are screws and nuts. All, therefore, that the prisoners had to do was to unscrew the nuts, pull back the door, and they were free.

One of the fugitives was the young man Victorio Snyder, charged with forgery, whose case we mention in another column, the other was a drunk and disorderly named Brecken.

PARDON OF MR. YOST—The pardon of G. W. Yost by the President was announced by telegraph on Saturday.

He was pardoned, it will be remembered, about the middle of last month, of the conspiracy to kidnap President Grant.

The United States Court at Pittsburgh. He was sentenced to two years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary, fined two thousand dollars and the cost of the suit.

Many prominent men have intended themselves to produce the pardon of Mr. Yost, and we were informed in part on false representations of facts.

Had not the friends of Mr. Yost been so active and urgent, the result might have been different. It is now a fact that Mr. Yost is an accomplished fact, and Mr. Yost has another chance to turn over a new leaf.

OFFICE OF THE PENNSYLVANIA LUMBER CO. OF THE CITY, Pa., May 20, 1872.

PARDON OF MR. YOST—The pardon of G. W. Yost by the President was announced by telegraph on Saturday.

The Race Saturday

Quite a large crowd assembled to witness the first trot of the season. Many fast private horses were on the ground and some very trotting took place during the interval between the heats. Especially noticeable was a splendid roan horse driven by W. H. Abbot, Esq., and W. Thompson's black mare, Lady Outstar. A sharp break between them took place, and the roan, best three in five to horses entered the following horses:

Chas. Cole named his mare Jenny Lind, A. W. Blake named his Col. Drake, Wilson named his Billy Wilson, F. Fowler named his Grange Billy, Lady Outstar drawn.

A large number of pools were sold. Jenny Lind being the favorite, with Billy Wilson.

In drawing for positions Col. Drake got the pole with Orange Billy 2nd, Billy Wilson 3rd, and Jenny Lind outside.

After scoring several times the word was given with the horses well together. Col. Drake took the lead which he maintained to the half mile pole in 1:21, closely pressed by Jenny Lind. In the third quarter the mare gave him the go by and opened a wide gap between herself and the other horses. Down the home stretch she came at an easy jog and won the race in 2:45 1/2.

SECOND HEAT

The horses got the word on the sixth more Jenny Lind, having the pole, was next round to turn, and reached the first quarter in 42 1/2, and Billy Wilson pushed her sharply, while Orange Billy and Col. Drake took the lead. The last mile was a close race, and Billy Wilson pushed her to the finish, and won the race in 2:45 1/2.

THIRD HEAT

Before the heat Billy Wilson and Col. Drake changed drivers, while Charlie Caldwell took Fowlers place behind Orange Billy. A good start was effected, and Billy Wilson took the lead from Jenny Lind at the turn. The last mile was a close race, and Billy Wilson pushed her to the finish, and won the race in 2:45 1/2.

FOURTH HEAT

This heat was all one way. In rounding the turn, Jenny Lind went to the front and was never headed again in the race. She made the first quarter in 42 seconds, the half mile in 1:23 and won the heat and race in 2:45 1/2.
